(All proceeds to go to the Rural Aid – Buy A Bale)

INSURANCE

1. Coolmore Australia is auctioning a nomination to Pierro, So You Think and Rubick for the 2018 Southern Hemisphere Breeding season (“Nomination”) to support those affected by the recent drought affecting New South Wales.
2. The successful purchaser (“the Purchaser”) of the Nomination has the option to take out insurance to cover a situation where either Pierro, So You Think or Rubick is unable to cover the mare due to accident, injury or illness, is deemed permanently infertile or dies.
3. The insurance will cover the monetary amount of the winning bid.
4. The cost of the insurance cover to be confirmed with the insurance provider.
5. The insurance cover will cease when the mare has been covered three times, when the mare is confirmed in foal or at the end of 2018 season whichever is the sooner. Responsibility then lies with the Purchaser.
6. The insurance cover will be provided by Logan’s Insurance.
7. The Purchaser will contract directly with Logan’s Insurance in relation to the insurance.
8. The Purchaser will be invoiced by Logan’s Insurance for the insurance and will pay Logan’s Insurance directly for the insurance.
9. Coolmore Australia will invoice the Purchaser of the Nomination at the winning bid price less the cost of the insurance cover.

10. Please note:

- a. If the Purchaser chooses not to take insurance and either Pierro, So You Think or Rubick are unable to cover the mare due to accident, injury or illness, being deemed permanently infertile or death, Coolmore Australia has no obligation to the Purchaser of the Nomination.

- b. If the Mare does not go in foal or does not have a live foal that stands and suckles within 24 hours after it is born, a free return will be provided to the stallion of use with the Nomination from 2015 for the 2016 season only. This is subject to Pierro, So You Think or Rubick being available. This only applies to mares with a good breeding history which are less than 12 years of age.
